HYMN (tune Hyfrydol H&P 592)

Christ the prisoner, Christ the victim,
Christ the judge and Christ the king.
Be with all whom we imprison
In their pain and suffering.
Let them feel your strength inside them
Comfort that shall never cease,
And to all who serve and guide them
Give your healing, give your peace.

Jesus Lord, the thief beside you
Found that in his dying hour
Casting off his sin and pride, you
Showed him your forgiving power.
Words of love and hope were spoken
Words that set the prisoner free.
With the humble and the broken,
Lord, we pray, remember me.

Poor or prisoner, lonely, ailing,
Naked, needy, hungry, ill
Those who visit them and serve them
Know they do your heavenly will.
Yet more powerful is your teaching
We rejoice to find it's true
When with love the lost we're reaching
Lord, in them we visit you.

Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
Living, loving Trinity,
In the power of Jesus' name, we
Pray you set your people free.
Free from sin and all that binds us,
Free to lift your name in praise,
Free from all that gags and blinds us,
Free to serve you all our days.

6.00 Service in the Small Hall led by Rev'd Debora Marschner

CHANGE FOR CHANGE

Through the Church & Society Committee meeting, the Church Council agreed that following of the success of Advent 'Change for Change' appeal for Christian Aid, a small carboy will be placed in the Narthex in front of the Faith window to collect loose change over two month blocks for donations to different named charities. The window space will be decorated accordingly. The first two months will be for Water Aid; March and April have been allocated to JMA. A list will then be compiled from your suggestions. Please see Barbara Buckley or ring 0113 258 3807

GIVE FOR SOUND

Make sure you have got your booking form for the visit of Judith Hibbert on Saturday 24th April for an evening to raise money to pay for the 'loop system' being installed into the Small Hall. This will be an evening to remember by a professional entertainer!!!!
Enquiries to Jack Myers telephone 0113 281 9844

MISSIONS BANQUET

This takes place on Saturday 6 March at Trinity Bramley. 7.00pm for 7.15pm. The speaker is Joan Dyer who has made many visits to The Gambia, where the Methodist Church has recently become autonomous, the last Overseas District of the Methodist Church to do so. Tickets can be obtained from Renee Collinson.
