Tuesday Coffee Silver Anniversary Celebrations

Unfortunately we have had to postpone the Tuesday Coffee's Silver Anniversary Celebrations due to the pre-school building work that is taking place in the Centre. We will still hold a coffee morning on that Tuesday August 5th, but our special celebration will now be held on Tuesday September 9th instead.

We look forward to seeing you all there.

Leprosy Mission News.

At the recent Church Council it was proposed that the Church would pay the £350 that the coach cost to bring the band from Sheffield. The band came and were happy to support the Leprosy Mission. The proposal was carried unanimously. The total forwarded to the area co-ordinator was £1415.22, a truly tremendous sum. Please see the thank you poster on the church.

We are hoping to raise more money for the Leprosy Mission therefore I am doing a talk in Church on Wednesday 17th September at 7:00 pm. It will be about when I went to Buckingham Palace on May 21st for the Royal Garden Party. If I can do justice to the talk I hope to make it a memorable evening. Please put this date in your diary.

Thank you for your continued support. Jack Myers.

Central Chapel Garden

When the Inghams moved to the East coast, Daniel Metcalfe bravely volunteered to be responsible for the Chapel garden. On Saturday August 2nd, he is organising a coffee morning and sale from 9 am to 12 noon. All proceeds will go to the Chapel garden. I hope everyone who goes to or passes Central and appreciates the garden will support Daniel.
