6:00 pm Taizé Service
led by the Revd Alistair Jones.

Three times a day everything on the hill of Taizé stops: the work, the bible studies, the discussions. The bells call everyone to church for prayer. Hundreds or even thousands of people from all over the world pray and sing together with the brothers of the community. In the middle of each prayer there is a period of silence, a unique moment for meeting with God. Peaceful Communion with God can do without words. How is it possible to reach this inner silence? Sometimes we are apparently silent and yet we have great turmoil within. Calming our souls requires a kind of simplicity: "I do not occupy myself with things too great and too marvellous for me". Silence means listening to God what is beyond our
