Horsforth Walk of Art

On Saturday 4 July the Grove will take part in the Horsforth 'Walk of Art' (see website horsforth-woa.org). The Church will be open from 10.00am until 4.00pm and have a display from Howard Carlisle's Art Group and a flower display. Music will be played at the end of the Church Drive.

Of course art comes in many forms, music, architecture, dance, etc. and our stained glass windows would fall into the category of art work, as well as aspects of our church's architecture and fittings. The Walk of Art information and directions can be downloaded at the above website, so ask someone to print you off a copy if you cannot access a computer.

We cannot have too many different displays running in the church as the Centre is in use, but if you would like, as a group or individual, to add to the day, then please contact me. I will be serving refreshments in the parlour.

It is a two day event, Saturday and Sunday, but the Grove will only take part on the Saturday, for obvious reasons.

Betty Throup

After a period of assessment in hospital, Betty is now in residence at Bedford Court, Room 12. You will be aware that this is a big step but she knows she is in a good place. The link to John (and indeed myself, as I have been greeted warmly by the staff) has helped here.

Should you want to visit please note she is known as Sarah to the staff.

Visits during office hours are easy (door open and sign in by the main office), outside this time (evenings and at weekends) is a buzzer job and the staff will let you in. Phil Maud

O Lord, whose way is perfect, help us, we pray, always to trust in your goodness, that walking with you and following you in all simplicity, we may possess quiet and contented minds and may cast all our care on you, who cares for us. Grant this, O Lord, for your dear Son's sake, Jesus Christ. Christina Rossetti (1830-1894)

TEA/COFFEE ARRANGEMENTS FOR TODAY

Unfortunately we are having to serve coffee this morning with a skeleton staff. So as not to cancel refreshments, I will set up the necessary items and ensure the milk is available. However, it just might be a morning of self service and goodwill this week, which I am sure we can pull together and make it happen.

Many thanks. Gill
