Christian Solidarity Worldwide

We have learned of a case in Vietnam that urgently needs your prayers. Nguyen Van Dai, a Christian human rights lawyer, has been detained by the police for 'spreading propaganda against the state' which carries a lengthy jail sentence. Lawyer Dai himself has previously served four years for this same charge. He was arrested at his house on 16 December while preparing to meet EU representatives as part of the annual EU-Vietnam human rights dialogue in Hanoi. Earlier this month Dai and three friends were beaten by plainclothes policemen after leaving a human rights conference designed to educate the Vietnamese people about their rights, including freedom of religion or belief.

- Please pray for courage for Nguyen Van Dai as he faces the possibility of another prison sentence
- Pray that other human rights defenders in Vietnam would be safe from similar beatings and arrests
- Pray for wisdom for Dai's legal team and that God would deliver justice in this case

Anne
