A prayer for peace in our communities

Gracious God,

We pray for peace in our communities this day.

We commit to you all who work for peace and an end to tensions,

And those who work to uphold law and justice.

We pray for an end to fear,

For comfort and support to those who suffer.

For calm in our streets and cities,

That people may go about their lives in safety and peace.

In your mercy, hear our prayers,

now and always. Amen

Introit

Call to Worship

The rest of the service is to be announced including the following hymn's.

Hymn : GP 60 God of burning cleansing flame

STF 256 When I needed a neighbour

STF 446 I will offer up my life

STF 350 I cannot tell why He whom angels worship

6:00 pm Evening Taizé Service led by The Revd Alistair Jones.

Three times a day everything on the hill of Taizé stops: the work, the bible studies, the discussions. The bells call everyone to church for prayer. Hundreds or even thousands of people from all over the world pray and sing together with the brothers of the community. In the middle of each prayer there is a period of silence, a unique moment for meeting with God. Peaceful Communion with God can do without words. How is it possible to reach this inner silence? Sometimes we are apparently silent and yet we have great turmoil within. Calming our souls requires a kind of simplicity: "I do not occupy myself with things too great and too marvellous for me". Silence means leaving to God what is beyond my reach and capacity.

FAMILY NEWS: Please remember friends who would value your prayers.

Mary Hart, Ros Revell, Christine Wilson, Kathleen Taylor, Florence Bonfield, Margaret Bosomworth, Simon Benson, May & Harry Tripp and Tony Emmott.
Our thoughts and prayers are with Christine Mathers at the recent death of her sister Nancu.

Singing the Faith

Many thanks to those who returned copies of 'Singing the Faith' which they had borrowed. We did have enough books for the Christmas services, but we do need all the books we own whenever we have a large congregation. There are still a few copies missing, so If you have one we would be glad to have it back.

A prayer for peace in our world

Make your ways known upon earth, Lord God,
your saving power among all peoples.
Renew your Church in holiness
and help us to serve you with joy.
Guide the leaders of all nations,
that justice may prevail throughout the world.
Let not the needy be forgotten,
nor the hope of the poor be taken away.
Make us instruments of your peace
and let your glory be over all the earth. Amen
