Many thanks to all who supported the Sheffield Citadel Band Concert in April. It was a wonderful evening because it was the band's 135th Anniversary and because they had requested to come to the Grove, this being their favourite venue.

I am grateful to Cynthia Hatton, the Senior Steward and all the Stewards who came on the evening to ensure that the arrangements went smoothly.

Also I am grateful to Brian Whitham for the sound and Andy Walker for the projection.

A special thanks to Carole Abel who took over arrangements when I was in hospital and to David Quick for making people welcome in his announcements.

The magnificent total of £750.00 was given to Salvation Army Charities. The bandmaster said he looked forward to coming again in two years time and I am sure we will all look forward to that too!!
